IMPORTANT: PRINT THESE INSTRUCTIONS NOW FOR USE WHILE SEARCHING.

American History in Video provides the largest and richest collection of videos available online for the study of American history, with 2,000 hours and more than 5,000 titles to date. Includes commercial and governmental newsreels, archival footage, public affairs footage, and important documentaries. Produced in collaboration with A&E Television Networks and features some of their most important documentaries and series from The History Channel®, A&E Network®, and Biography®.

The following instructions will tell you how to:

- A. Access American History in Video
- B. Conduct a Search
- C. Browse Collection
- D. View Titles

A. Access American History in Video

- ◆ Go to the Hunt Library home page (<http://library.erau.edu>).
- ◆ Click on Embry-Riddle Worldwide.
- ◆ Click on Find Articles (Databases).
- ◆ Click on Using the Databases.
- ◆ After reading the instructions, click on the ERNIE (<http://ernie.erau.edu>) link.
- ◆ Login to ERNIE with your username and password.
- ◆ Scroll down to find the Admin Services module. (If you don't see this module, click on your browser's refresh or reload icon and it will usually appear.)
- ◆ Click on Library Databases which will take you to the Databases access page. You will remain signed into this page until you close your browser. This feature allows you to search additional web databases without signing in again.
- ◆ Locate American History in Video from the alphabetical list and click on American History in Video.

IMPORTANT: If this database requires another Username and Password for login, you may need to temporarily disable any firewall installed on your computer. Firewalls often interfere with the login process.

B. Conduct a Search

- ◆ Enter your search term(s) in the Search box in the upper right hand corner of the page.
- ◆ Search Tips
 - Use and between words to ensure that each term is present somewhere in the search results: lincoln and war.
