The Fort Stewart Army Post Library has a variety of services and materials and should be useful for your research efforts. The library contains approximately 68,000 books in addition to its periodical and microform collections. Basic services and policies of the library are outlined below.

Borrowing Privileges

Active duty and retired military personnel and their families, as well as civilians employed on base, may use the library and borrow materials. A library card may be obtained by presenting a valid ID card at the circulation desk.

Periodicals/Microforms

The library receives over 250 periodical subscriptions. Back issues of some of these are kept on microfiche or microfilm. Microform reader/printers are available for public use.

Database Search Services

When looking for periodical articles or report literature, patrons may be able to perform searches using the library's CD-ROM or online indexes. Some databases useful to your research are listed in the "Research Sources" section of this guide. To learn whether these sources are available, contact a reference librarian. There may be a charge for this service.

Interlibrary Loan Service

Interlibrary loan services are available for requesting articles and documents that are not in the library. Requests for these items may be filled out at the circulation desk. There may be a charge for this service.

The CEL Regional Library contains approximately 572,000 books in addition to its periodical and microform collections. Basic services and policies of the library are outlined below.

Borrowing Privileges

Library cards are free to residents of Chatham, Effingham, and Liberty Counties. Military personnel and their families are considered residents. You can obtain a card by presenting a photo ID and proof of residence at the circulation desk. Non-residents may obtain a library card for an annual.

Periodicals/Microforms

The library receives over 1,400 periodical subscriptions. Back issues of some of these are available on microfiche or microfilm. Microform reader/printers are available for public use.

Database Search Services

When looking for periodical articles or report literature, patrons may be able to perform searches using the library's CD-ROM or online indexes. Some databases useful to your research are listed in the "Research Sources" section of this guide. To learn whether these sources are available, contact a reference librarian. There may be a charge for this service.

Government Documents

The CEL Library is a selective U.S. government document depository library and also has a collection of state documents. Many government documents can be found by consulting indexes such as those listed under Government Publications in the "Research Sources" section of this guide. These indexes list documents by author, title, and subject, and provide the Superintendent of Documents (SuDoc) Number for locating documents on the shelves.

Interlibrary Loan Service

Interlibrary loan services are available for requesting articles and documents that are not in the library. ILL request forms may be submitted in person or by telephone at the Bull Street Library or at the Carnegie, Forest City, Islands, Liberty County, Oglethorpe Mall, Thunderbolt, and West Chatham branch libraries. There is a charge for this service.
